

Private Bourke Killed Accidentally by Chum.
Private Edward Bourke, 1st Provisional Regiment, was instantly killed last evening by his chum, Private Frank Burke. The men were on duty near the Kensico Dam, at Valhalla. Coroner Mills says they were fooling with each other when Burke's gun went off accidentally. Bourke's home was at No. 665 Sixth Avenue, Brooklyn.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

A small bottle of "Dandarine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, wavy, and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Dandarine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a bottle of Knowlton's Dandarine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Dandarine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Dandarine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits every one who tries this.—Advt.

GANGSTER ON WAY TO MURDER TRIAL ESCAPES GUARDS

Ex-Convict, Accused of Killing Man in Club Hold-Up, Flees in Criminal Courts.

Richard Harrison, twenty-four years old, of No. 826 Washington Street, a gangster who has served his third term, and who is now under indictment for the murder of a man in a hold-up, escaped from the custody of two deputy sheriffs at 3:45 o'clock this morning, while on the way to the prisoners' pen in Part One of the Court of General Sessions, after crossing the Bridge of Signs from the Tombs to the Criminal Courts Building.

Deputy Sheriff Jacobs led twelve prisoners who were to be arraigned before Judge Wadhams in Part One of General Sessions. Deputy Sheriff Hannigan brought up the rear, and Harrison was the last man in the line. After entering the Criminal Courts Building the prisoners had to descend two flights of stairs to reach the pen in the basement. When they reached the main floor Harrison made a run for it and opening a door leading into the grated passageway in Part One, slammed it in the face of Hannigan, who was in immediate pursuit.

Hannigan opened the door in time to see Harrison jump the rail in front of the Judge's bench. He was lost to sight when he opened the main door of the court room and stepped into the corridor which was crowded with people waiting for court to open. In all probability, Harrison made his way through the crowd to the main door on Centre Street.

A general alarm for Harrison was sent out by the police.

Harrison is declared by the police to have been the leader of the gang of six which held up the Knickerbocker Walters' Club, No. 787 Sixth Avenue, at 4:15 o'clock on the morning of September 2. Those who were in the club at the time were lined up against the walls under the guns of the gang and relieved of their money and valuables. George J. Griffiths, an Englishman, was shot to death. Policeman William Maskell had a duel in the dark with the gangsters. They shot at him from the top of the stairs and he killed one of their number. He captured Harrison and Gustav Guillaume and three others made their escape.

ITALY CLAIMS CREDIT FOR WESTERN VICTORIES

Foiled Teuton Plans by Smashing Austrian Offensive, Says Orlando.

ROME, Oct. 4.—"The enemy intended, after defeating Italy, to transfer the best part of his Austrian and German troops to the west front, where he hoped to achieve a definite victory before the great American armies could make themselves felt," Premier Orlando declared in an address to the Chamber of Deputies to-day. "Thus Austria's June offensive on our front was connected with the July offensive on the west front. The staunchness of our brave fellows not only saved Italy but also proved to be a great advantage to the common cause."

The Premier sent greetings to the Italian soldiers at the front. "Who initiated the brilliant victories of the Entente," and to the troops of the Allies.
